

Chase Odgers

2868660

Team 22

Weekly Individual update: Week 1

This week was our first week together as a team. We established a group-me group messaging team to facilitate communication. I met with Dr. Johnson and my team and we went over the teams goals, I clarified questions I had about the project. Following the meeting our team set weekly meetings to talk about our progress on the project. I also have started doing research on the modes of implementation for our project.